Foreword

IN ORDER TO acquaint the public with the great quality and rich breeding of the shorthorns in their respective herds J. D. Allen, owner of Allendale Farm, Libertyville, Illinois; Mr. Wm. Bartholomay, Jr., owner of Marellbar Farms, Libertyville, Illinois and Mr. F. W. Harding, owner of Anoka Farms, Waukesha, Wisconsin have selected forty-three Shorthorns from the top half of their herds that constitute an offering of Shorthorns every individual of which any breeder would be proud to own.

It is true economy to breed from Shorthorns of best type and quality, with pronounced breed character and backed by pedigrees that give assurance of ability to reproduce those desirable characteristics. That kind and only that kind will be found in this sale. The novice can buy here with the same assurance of making a profitable investment as the breeder of experience and ripened judgment.

It is expected that many breeders will attend several of the sales held during the week commencing Monday, June 3d. Some will arrive in Chicago on Sunday the 2d. All of the sale cattle will be stalled at the International Stock Show barns at that time and may be inspected then. It is only a short distance to Libertyville and the Allendale and Marellbar Farms and from Marellbar only a mile to Edellyn. You are invited to take advantage of your nearness to visit those great establishments and to see the herds from which this sale offering has been drawn. Anoka Farms are only about forty miles farther and you are cordially invited to visit that shrine of the breed at this same time or at any other time that is convenient for you to do so.

Will Johnson of The Shorthorn World.

ALLENDALE FARM

AR. J. D. ALLEN, owner of Allendale Farms is not interested in merely multiplying Shorthorns. It is his aim to improve and in order to do so he has selected breeding stock of the highest type, quality and breeding regardless of where they are located or what effort must be made to procure them.

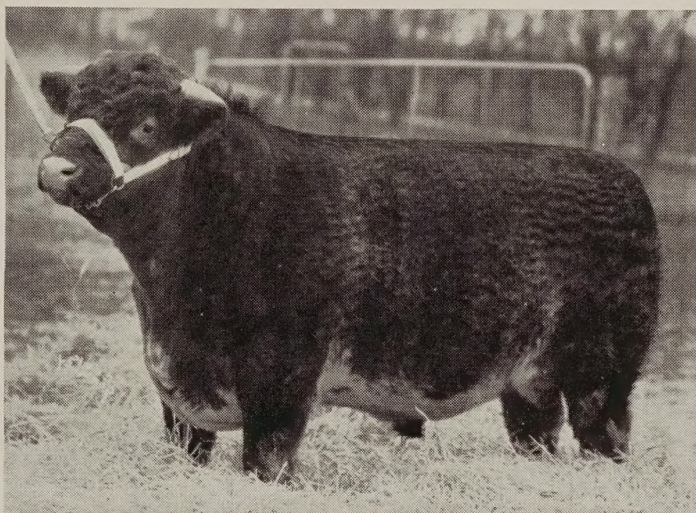

The first fourteen lots in this catalog tell, better than any words that could be written, of what ideal type, of what attractive, breedy character and of what ideal blood lines his herd is composed.

If you have not been to Allendale, plan now to go at your earliest convenience. Take advantage of your attendance at this great series of sales by leaving home a day early so that you can have time to see this beautiful farm and the truly excellent herd of Shorthorns maintained there.

Allendale is just one and one-half miles south of Libertyville, Illinois on the west side of U. S. Highway No. 45. No Shorthorn enthusiast should miss an opportunity to visit Allendale Farms.

Marellbar Farms

IS IT GOOD CATTLE that you wish to see? Do you enjoy pleasant surroundings? Does genuine hospitality have any charm? If your answer is "yes", visit Marellbar Farms where you will find all three in abundance. The name Marellbar has become synonymous with the best in Shorthorn cattle. Few herds have been built without acquiring some specimens that needed to be culled out but that kind has had short shrift at Marellbar. Mr. Bartholomay is too good a breeder to keep any but the most potent of herd bulls or the most useful and attractive of females.

In the following pages in this catalog are pictured three of the bulls that have been most influential in building the herd, two of which are now at its head. A group of some of the grand matrons that comprise the foundation is shown and when have you seen more attractive sale cattle listed than this consignment to this great sale?

Come early to the week's series of sales. Visit Marellbar on Sunday, June 2d. You cannot go to a place that contains more attractions for lovers of Shorthorn cattle. If you cannot arrange to attend on that day take advantage of the first opportunity to see this grand herd.

Klaymor Cap-A-Pie 1957635 was bought at the highest price of any bull sold in Canada or the United States in 1939. Considering the way he has developed he is well worth his cost. His sire is the great imported sire Collynie Royal Barrage 1873801 (Imp.) that is making an enviable reputation for W. J. Russell in Ontario. His dam is a great producer of bulls. One of her bull calves was sold to go to New Zealand in 1938 for $2000. She now has a solid red bull calf that is reported to be the best calf on the Russell farm. Klaymor Cap-a-Pie appears to be the making of as great a sire as his own famous sire. The opportunity to buy an outstanding heifer bred to him should not be overlooked.

Anoka Farms Offering

FOR HALF A CENTURY Anoka farms have been the source of utmost quality in Shorthorns. For forty years F. W. Harding has guided the destiny of the great herd. Take from the Shorthorn breed the descendants of bulls used at Anoka and little would be left in America upon which to build.

Frank Harding is without a peer in his judgment of what constitutes good foundation cattle and he has gone deep into his famous herd to select females for this sale that beginners and established breeders can use with success in their efforts to produce better Shorthorns.

Follow the example of hundreds of America's most successful breeders and buy foundation cattle from Anoka and you may be assured that you will build a successful and profitable herd of Shorthorns. Nine of these heifers have been bred and settled to the service of Blythwood Gold Cloud 2003552. He is a rich red, level lined, smooth and deep with short legs and a good head. His sire is Divide Golddust by the International grand champion Browndale Goldspur. His dam was by the noted Ballylin Rodney and was the top heifer of her year at the American Shorthorn Congress.

The calves that buyers will get from the heifers bred to this promising young bull should be in every way equal to their attractive mothers.

Will Johnson of The Shorthorn World.

F. W. Harding has selected these pleasing and attractive heifers from his famous Anoka herd for this sale. Note their unusual uniformity, their grand breedy heads, their level well balanced bodies, their well placed short legs. Then study the pedigrees that follow in this catalog and you will realize the extraordinary merit of his offering.
